

VENDOR AGREEMENT

A complete listing and description of rules and an overview of the Market operations is contained in the “Mansfield Farm & Cottage Market Overview & Rules” document. As a Vendor of the Mansfield Farm & Cottage Market, I, and all representatives of my business, agree to abide by that document in addition to acknowledging the following excerpts below (section numbers listed):

2.2.2 - Reside in my assigned space number and boundaries; I understand spaces are assigned based on requirements by the Market Manager in accordance with the needs of the Market.

2.2.3 - Maintain all required permits or certifications needed to operate my business including (but not limited to) Texas State Sales & Use Tax, food handlers, and/or City of Mansfield health permits. These permits shall be displayed in a location of the booth able to be seen by customers.

2.2.4 - Be in attendance, on time, and remain at the Market during specified hours for the duration of the season and in accordance with the schedule submitted to the Market Manager. Missing confirmed dates may result in loss of fees, or fees owed, for a no-call/no-show in accordance with the attendance policy.

2.2.5 - Setups will be in accordance with the Rules Guide including weights, canopy sizes, signage, boundaries, power, and trash requirements. (please see section for complete description)

2.2.6 - Edible Product Samples shall be in accordance with the Vendor’s Type requirements and the City of Mansfield Health agreements. Food samples are only allowed for those selling that item.

2.2.7 - All vendors shall comply with the code of conduct detailed in the Mansfield Farm & Cottage Market Overview & Rules including respect and courtesy, attire, professionalism, tobacco/vaping products, alcohol, and firearms.

Additional sections per Vendor type include Farms (2.3), Cottage Food/Goods (2.4), Artisan/Craftsman (2.5), Education/Not-for, Non-Profit (2.6), Food/Beverage (2.7), Food Trucks/Trailers (2.8), and Musician/Artist (2.9).
